Title: Making - "Hast likhit ank" (hand written magazine) Shikshan Vicharvishwa (Education Ideology)

Objective:

- To foster creativity and critical thinking among students.
- To provide a platform for students to express their thoughts and ideas on education.
- To encourage effective communication and writing skills.
- To promote a love for literature and the art of handwriting.
- To create a unique and engaging learning experience.

Context:

The College of Education, Kharod, recognizes the importance of holistic education that goes beyond traditional classroom learning. The college aims to cultivate well-rounded individuals with strong critical thinking, communication, and creative skills.

Practice:

1. Conceptualization and Planning: A dedicated Library committee is formed to plan and execute the "Hast likhit ank" project. The theme "Shikshan Vicharvishwa" (Education Ideology) is selected to encourage students to delve into diverse perspectives on education.
2. Student Engagement: All students are encouraged to participate in the project. Guide students on choosing a topic related to education. Writing effective articles and poems, Designing and illustrating their contributions. Students are provided with resources such as library access, expert guidance, and peer feedback.
3. Magazine Creation: Students meticulously handwrite their articles, poems, and illustrations on designated sheets. The collected contributions are carefully reviewed and selected for publication. The magazine is designed and laid out Library committee, ensuring an aesthetically pleasing and professional look. The magazine is professionally printed and bound.

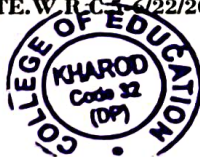

Evidence of Success: The College maintains a bound volume of each "Hast likhit ank" in the college library, serving as a valuable resource for current and future students.

Problem: - The handwritten nature of the magazine can be time-consuming for both students and the organizing team.

Lack interest of students and also they are not aware of writing skills.
